Old Business –

Golf Outing – Chris Peterson reached out to Matt Meyer to see if Arrowhead would be able to change the post-round meal to brats and burgers. That wasn't a problem. Chris Peterson then went over last year's participants to see if any board members could reach out to them for foursomes. Chris Peterson also went over the hole sponsors.

$50 Raffle – Jeff Doeden reported he will release the raffle square board this week. Derek Pitzer suggested freezing it the day of the golf outing, then reopen it after. An actual square board will be made for the golf outing.

Peoria Chiefs – Jim Stoner reported that he got the tickets – a 100 for July 3 - from the Chiefs. There aren't any youth organizations to sell the tickets yet. Bill King said that Chris Yocum was going to reach out to the Limestone Youth Baseball.

75th Celebration – Nothing new to report.

Newsletter Advertising – No ads ran in the spring newsletter. Adam Duvall reported that no one reached out to him for an add. Bill King and Jeff Doeden will both take ads.

Jaycees Beerfest – Jim Stoner reported that ISC will receive $600 from its volunteers. Both Bill King and Ron King brought volunteers. A bigger group of ISC volunteers would garner the ISC up to $6,000. Plans for advanced notice for recruiting volunteers for the next Beerfest was discussed.

MNF Squares – Nothing new to report.

ISC Memorabilia – Bill King reported that he has old plaques with Shaun Livingston and Bill Cole in his office. He said it would be cool to get some pictures and post on the ISC Facebook page. Kevin Joseph mentioned the koozies for the golf outing. Bill King said he would pay for 300 in two different colors.
