Old Business –

The Smoker – Jeff Doeden reported that the ISC is the lone organizer to fill The Warehouse on State with 300 people. Jeff reports that the Bradley University lower bowl season tickets went for a record amount - $5,000. In total, The Smoker raised over $20,000 – more than $3,000 than the event has ever raised.

World Series Squares Board – Jeff Doeden reported that the board will net around $700.

Cullinan Christmas Party – Ron King reports that the annual lunch is Thursday, Dec. 9 at Expo Gardens. Arrive at 10:30 a.m. Ron was told that 16 volunteers are needed. ISC board members Ron King, David Hunt, Bill Molleck, Jeff Doeden, Jim Stoner, Kevin Joseph, and Pat Lavery will be there. Board members are encouraged to bring a friend.

New Business –

NFL Wild Card Party – Ron King reported that he spoke with Loren Peacock about the Wild Card Party for Saturday, Jan. 15 at Peacock's Pub in Bartonville. All you can eat/domestic draft from the start of the first game to third quarter of the second game. There was discussion on the event's price.

Membership Appreciation – Ron King reported that the tentative date will be Thursday, March 24, 2022, to kick off the Sweet Sixteen.

Bradley/Illinois Squares Board – ISC decided to have a combined conference-only squares board for Bradley and Illinois. Cost will be $100. The one board will be distributed by Jeff Doeden later this month.

Adjournment –

Motion by Kevin Day to adjourn, second by Bill Molleck.

Meeting adjourned at 6:49 p.m.
