

'Queen of Hearts Progressive Raffle' continues

The Independent Sports Club of Central Illinois in collaboration with Jack's on Adams heads to its third week in hosting a weekly Queen of Hearts Progressive Raffle.

Tickets are a $1 and are sold Wednesday-Tuesday at Jack's at 107 SW Adams St.

Pull the Queen of Hearts, win the jackpot. No Queen of Hearts? Receive $100 & the jackpot rolls over.

Next week's jackpot is $1,234.

The ISC Bulletin - Visit our Website

2024 Andy Paul awards banquet set for Feb. 3

The annual Andy Paul Award will be given out on February 3 at the Lariat Steakhouse in Peoria.

Andy Paul won the 1939 Men's City golf tournament as a 21-year-old, then later served as an ISC president.

This honor was designed to honor the outstanding junior player from the Peoria's Men's City. In recent years, the ISC board decided to change the scope of the award to honor the year's outstanding junior player – boys and girls – from the Tri-County area.

Last year's winners, Ella Coulter (Peoria Notre Dame), left, and Connor Watson (East Peoria) are pictured above.

Peoria Rivermen hosting ISC as its Non-Profit of the Night on Jan. 18

The Peoria Rivermen welcomes the ISC on Jan. 18 as its Non-Profit of the Night.

ISC has been allotted 100 tickets that are selling at $15 a piece. Face value of the ticket is $23. Limited tickets remain!

To purchase tickets, contact isccentralillinois@gmail.com.

A BIG thank you to Regan Jones

Regan Jones, pictured right, has ended his tenure with the ISC board of directors in 2024.

Jones served as the ISC president in 2023, helping with the golf outing and organizing the ISC volunteering at the Cullinan Christmas Party.

Thank you, Regan, for your time and service in supporting central Illinois youth sports.

Upcoming ISC Event

Next Board Meeting - 5 p.m. Feb. 3 at Lariat Steakhouse in Peoria