

'Queen of Hearts Progressive Raffle' continues

The Independent Sports Club of Central Illinois in collaboration with Jack's on Adams hosts the weekly Queen of Hearts Progressive Raffle on Tuesday.

Tickets are a $1 and are sold Wednesday-Tuesday at Jack's at 107 SW Adams St.

Pull the Queen of Hearts, win the jackpot. No Queen of Hearts? Receive $100 & the jackpot rolls over.

Tuesday's jackpot is $1,371.

The ISC Bulletin - Visit our Website

2024 Andy Paul Awards winners announced

The annual Andy Paul Awards were presented on February 3 at the Lariat Steakhouse in Peoria.

Andy Paul won the 1939 Men's City golf tournament as a 21-year-old, then later served as an ISC president.

This honor was designed to honor the outstanding junior player from the Peoria's Men's City. In recent years, the ISC board decided to change the scope of the award to honor the year's outstanding junior player – boys and girls – from the Tri-County area.

The 2024 winners, Sydney Hunt (Dunlap), left, and Connor Watson (East Peoria) are pictured above.

Peoria Razorbacks Wrestling Club awarded annual financial grant

Peoria Razorbacks Wrestling Club was one of five financial grant recipients from the February meeting.

Steve Montez, pictured in the bottom right corner, is pictured with the Razorbacks Wrestling Club.

To apply for a financial grant, click here.

Poker Player of the Year named

Scott Grawey, middle, won the February poker tournament - Poker Bowl II, claiming ISC Player of the Year in the process.

Grawey, who won POY honors by 40 points, is pictured with ISC board members Jeff Doeden, left, and Kevin Joseph.

The next poker tournament - PokerPalooza - will be Sunday, May 4 at Lariat Steakhouse in Peoria.

Upcoming ISC Event

Next Board Meeting - 6 p.m. March 3 at Alexander's Steakhouse in Peoria

